MEMORANDUM FOR: Captain Charles L. Petefish
Office of the S2
U. S. Army Intelligence Center and School
Fort Huachuca, Arizona

SUBJECT : Request for Downgrading Instructions of
"Where's What" - Sources of Information for Federal Investigators, Prepared by [REDACTED], Retired Security
Employee, Central Intelligence Agency

25X1A9A

1. Reference is made to your memorandum, subject as above, dated 1 October 1971, wherein you requested that this Agency advise when "Where's What" may be declassified, if that action is consistent with the sensitivity of its content.

2. Although the Central Intelligence Agency has always been sympathetic to the work of law enforcement, it is the policy of this Agency not to associate itself with any endeavor even remotely connected with law enforcement.

3. "Where's What" contains information on the CIA and also reflects data furnished by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Atomic Energy Commission. Such information was furnished with the firm understanding between those Government organizations and the author that the information which they provided would remain classified. For these reasons it is essential that "Where's What" remain classified.

4. In order, however, that law enforcement officers across the country might be able to utilize such an important contribution as "Where's What" to the field of law enforcement, an unclassified, revised, updated version of "Where's What" was recently completed by [REDACTED] under the auspices of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, Department of Justice. It is our understanding that the book will be published in the near future.

5. Further information concerning the unclassified edition of "Where's What" may be obtained by contacting:

Mr. Martin Danziger
Chief, Technical Assistance Division
